

Dr. Geo. W. Webb

VOL. 1.—NO. 23.

[For the Palladium]
DEATH OF E. P. TUTT.
 Leaves have their time to fall,
 Flowers to wither in the north winds breath,
 * * * But all—thou hast all seasons

died at Glenwood, Iowa, of Apoplexy, HAROLD P. TUTT, Esq., in the 26th year of age, on the 22d ult.

At a meeting of the Bar of Mills council on the evening of the 23d ult., called for the purpose of paying a tribute of respect to the lamented deceased, Wm. R.
Spilsh was called to the chair and H. H.

... Harding, from the committee, made the following report, which was adopted.

Whereas, it has pleased the Great Disposer of all human events, to remove from among us, by the agency of death, our respected and beloved Brother of the Bar,

Resolved 1st, That we deeply sympathize with the severely afflicted parents and relations of the deceased, in the irreparable loss they have sustained, and would most earnestly offer them the balm of condolence.

And 2d, That in the loss of Mr. Tutt, so widely and so generally appreciated in our common community have been deprived of one of their most promising, intelligent and worthy members, and the legal profession robbed of a high-minded and generous brother.

Resolved, That the citizens of the 40th Replative District, of which Mr. Tamm was elected Representative in our State legislature, has been deprived of a highly efficient officer, could he have been permitted to fill the station.

h, That the vacancy created by this melancholy event, both in society and in profession, as well as in the official position which he occupied, would be difficult to refill—and we would express our personal sorrow and regret that so

5. That a report of our proceedings, together with the above resolutions, be published in the neighboring newspapers, and a copy furnished the family of the deceased.

Glenwood Division, No. 124. Sons of Temperance, adopted the following resolutions, expressive of the sense of this division, on the death of Brother R. P.

Whereas, It has pleased an all wise providence to remove from our midst our worthy brother, it is Resolved, That in the loss of Bro. R. P. H., our Order has lost one of her ablest advocates, and society one of her brightest ornaments.

Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with the family and friends of our deceased brother, in this their bereavement.

Resolved, That the preamble and resolutions be entered on the records of this division, and that the R. S. present a copy

HENRY Y. BIXBY, R. S.

— Sidney Smith tenderly implored every writing man before he put pen to paper to think of the deluge—to gaze on it and be brief. "Medicine," he said, not now lounge over a pamphlet for ten years, as they did before their submersion when an average life extended eight hundred years. In the old al of matter was crowded into a very le space. Therefore, on all account ze on Noah and be brief.

Boston has just sent back to Europe 150 paupers from the different institutions of the State. All but 28 returned of their own free will, the balance have been no go back is an old man who has been in this country for thirty-six years, and who has raised a family and buried them.

At Urbana, Ohio, recently, on Sabbath, the bell of the Presbyterian church, rung the second time.

regation sat waiting, but no minister came. After the lapse of about half an hour, a note was handed to one of the

... who rose and read it to the congregation. It was from the minister, who said he would not preach any more till his salary was paid up. Served the congregation right.

■ A Western editor, in answer to complaint of a patron, that he did not give news enough, told him when news was ance, to read the Bible, which he had no doubt would be new to him.

